

Agape Flights is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, Christian aviation ministry.

Nearly 20 million people live in the areas regularly reached by Agape's flights to Haiti, the Dominican Republic and the Bahamas. In 2016, as Agape expands into Cuba, the largest island in the Caribbean, this number will increase to more than 30 million people. The critical supplies transported to nearly 400 missionaries, their families and their missions are used to change lives, one person at a time.

Each year, Agape Flights touches the lives of millions through its affiliated missionaries who provide clean water, community health, education, evangelism, medical services, micro-enterprise, orphan care and vocational training.

History:

On Nov. 15, 1980, Agape's inaugural flight left Sarasota-Bradenton International Airport bound for Cap Haitien, Haiti. The small Cessna 411 was loaded with donated emergency supplies and mail for about 25 missionary families.

Agape Flights moved to its current location at Venice Municipal Airport on Jan. 2, 2007. It's Embraer 110 twin-engine turboprop is capable of carrying 3,000 pounds of cargo on each weekly flight.

"Agape" (A-GOP-ay) is a Greek word, meaning God's unconditional love.

Where do we fly?

Mission flights regularly land in Eleuthera, Bahamas; Cap Haitien, Port-au-Prince and Les Cayes, Haiti; and Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic. Our service is currently expanding into Cuba.
