

HURRICANE MATTHEW DISASTER RELIEF

For nearly thirty six years prior to the devastation caused by Hurricane Matthew, Agape Flights has delivered supplies and hope to Haiti.

We are there now...

We were there through the 2010 Haiti earthquake...

We will be there months and years from now...

Nearly 20 million people live in the areas regularly reached by Agape's flights to Haiti, the Dominican Republic and the Bahamas. In 2016, as Agape expands into Cuba, the largest island in the Caribbean, this number will increase to more than 30 million people. The critical supplies transported to nearly 400 missionaries, their families and their missions are used to change lives, one person at a time.

When you support Agape Flights, you can be assured the supplies directly reach the Haitian people in desperate need. Agape's planes are personally met at the airport by missionaries who distribute the emergency supplies and food to orphanages, feeding programs, medical clinics and hospitals.

Following the impact of the October 3, 2016 hurricane to the hardest hit areas of Jeremie and Les Cayes, Haiti, Agape's first relief flight landed on Saturday, October 8, with 3,000 pounds of emergency relief supplies including, food, water purification tablets, tarps, generators and tools needed to begin the cleanup process.

To respond to our affiliated missionaries and the needs of the people of the Caribbean...Agape Flights needs your help!

Here's how you can help us continue to deliver hope and the needed relief supplies:

- PRAY with us for the missionaries, the people of Haiti, and for God's direction
